MUZRAI DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE NOTE.

Subject.

Consecration of a Ganapati idol in a new temple built by Ganapati Yogeeswara in Handrakalli village, Chamarajnagar Taluk

LAST REFERENCE:—

Letter No. 156 dated 18th November 1904, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District.

[x] No 91/1053 Dy 07th June 1903.

In June[x] 1903, one Ganapati Yogeeswara of Handrakalli village, Chamarajnagar Taluk, petitioned to H. H. the Maharaja stating that he had built a temple for Ganapati and installed an idol therein, that the temple was broken into, but that the idol and the puja vessels which had been stolen were recovered and that the villagers had agreed to contribute funds towards the consecration of the idol and executed muchilika to that effect, and praying that a supplemental grant may be made by the Govt for the purpose. This petition wa transferred to this Department for disposal under cover of the Private Secretary's Memo No. 2458, dated 15th June 1903.

The said Yogeeswara has again petitioned to His Highness stating that the work of the construction of the temple is completed, and that he has collected a contribution of Rs 100/- and deposited the amount in the Savings Bank and prays that the Govt may be pleased to make arrangements for the construction of the Vimana and for the performance of the consecration ceremonies and of regular puja in the temple. This petition has also been forwarded* to this Department for disposal

* Private Secretary's No 1194 dated 14th November 1904.

The Deputy Commissioner of the Mysore District to whom the first of the above-petitions were forwarded* now reports in the communication cited above that the temple was broken into but that the thieves were not detected, that the village patel who was suspected to have had a hand in the theft was suspended for some time and his son appointed thereto that a sum

* with this Office No. 2581, dated 23rd June 1903.

of Rs 100/- contributed by the villagers has been deposited in the Savings Bank and that the petitioner, the said Yogeeswara, has been collecting ~~funds~~ contributions for the consecration of the idol and that such consecration yet remains unperformed owing to want of funds.

Now the question is whether any help can be given from the Muzrai funds to such non-Muzrai Institutions which are newly built

Submitted for orders

Is

It is not possible to give monetary help in such cases. Those that build temples must also provide for their upkeep. The wants of the existing temples which are under Muzrai management are so many that there are no funds to give away to private institutions. Petr may I think be informed that his prayer for monetary help cannot be complied with.

I should think there would be no end of such applications if one were granted.

Reporting on the consecration of Ganapati idol from the Ganapati Yoli at Hanurkalli Chamarajnagar Taluk. —

Deputy Commissioner's Office
Mysore District
Muzrai Department.
Dated Mysore November 1904.

To,
L. Anantaswami Rao Esq, B.A
Secretary to the Government of Mysore
in the Muzrai Department.

Sir,

With reference to your No 2581 dated 23rd June 1903 calling for a report on the Consecration of a Ganapati idol in the Handrakalli village, Chamarajnagar Taluk, I have the honor to state that the temple of Ganapati built by Ganapati Yogi was unlawfully entered into and the idol together with some other materials were stolen by somebody. The thieves were not detected but the idol was found sometime later. On some suspicion the Patel of the village was suspended for sometime as having a hand in this. His son was appointed in his stead as he was very old. The sum of Rs 100/ contributed by the villagers is kept in the Savings Bank deposit. Ganapati Yogi has been collecting subscriptions from the public for consecrating the idol. The idol is not yet consecrated for want of funds. The petitioner prays for some help Government. As soon as the consecration ceremony takes place, a report will be submitted

2 The petition addressed to His Highness the Maharaja is resubmitted for reference.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

Deputy Commissioner
Mysore District.
